Relax during your pregnancy

The first 3 months of your pregnancy

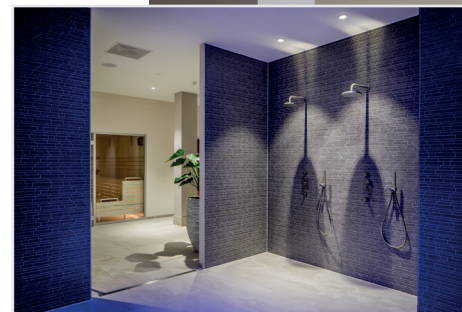

We advise against a sauna visit in all situations during the first three months of pregnancy. Your body is extra vulnerable during these elevated temperatures and this can affect the development of the baby.

The last 6 weeks of your pregnancy

If you visit the sauna regularly, you can visit the sauna. Do you want to cool down? Then do this in the shower or with a cooling hose.

Sauna rules during your pregnancy

- Do not use the infrared sauna.
- Do not use saunas with high temperatures (90-95°C).
- Cool down well, drink enough and take a long rest period.
- Do not stay in the sauna for more than 10 minutes.
- Are you in doubt? Always contact the obstetrician.

Treatments during pregnancy

When you are pregnant it is not possible to undergo all massages, partly because you can no longer lie on your full stomach. The following treatments are suitable during pregnancy.

- Indian Head Massage 25 + 35 min.
- Illuminating Radiance Facial 30 min.
- Heart Of The Ocean Facial 60 min.
- Eye treatments Standard + Deluxe.
- Polish OPI Infinite Shine + Gelcolor (hand and/or foot).
- Manicure Classic with Infinite Shine or Gelcolor.
- Pedicure Classic with Infinite Shine or Gelcolor.

Always inform the specialist if you are pregnant. We also ask you to bring a written approval from your obstetrician that you can and may undergo the treatment.
